

Issued by the Media Centre of Dubai Festivals and Retail Establishment
7 March 2016

CITY WALK Hosts CITY PICNICS during Dubai Food Festival 2016

CITY WALK invites Dubai's residents and visitors to gather friends and family and join the excitement at CITY PICNICS every weekend during Dubai Food Festival 2016. Offering a delectable food selection from around the world in dedicated picnic areas across the asset, visitors to the city's premier urban lifestyle destination can enjoy a truly immersive experience featuring endless games and fun activities for both young and old.

Picnic lovers can grab a CITY PICNIC basket from any one of the participating outlets ranging from French cafes to international eateries, bistros and diners including Il café di Roma, Burger Joint, La Postreteria, Y by Yabani, Nar, Brandi, Miskeh, Mo's Restaurant, Paul Café, Pei Wei, The Noodle House and Saponi Di Bice. Every weekend, families can enjoy a day-out participating in a game of Giant Jenga, mini puzzles, bowling, or a round of snakes and ladders. The destination also features a host of attractions to keep the little ones entertained throughout the day.

Developed and managed by Meraas, the pedestrian-friendly hub has evolved as the preferred destination of choice for UAE nationals, residents and visitors from around the world to live, meet, socialise, shop, dine and spend quality time with loved ones in a serene and compelling ambience.

Centrally located between two of the city's most prestigious neighbourhoods on Al Safa Street, in close proximity to Sheikh Zayed Road and the highly frequented Jumeirah Beach Road, CITY WALK offers an unobstructed view of Dubai's world-famous and mesmerising skyline. Through a conveniently connected street system with direct links to Dubai's highway network, the masterplan establishes corridors to the city's well-known landmarks.