Fashionistas enjoy a beach treat at the Etisalat Beach Canteen

Visitors to the Etisalat Beach Canteen at Kite Beach, the central hub of Dubai Food Festival, experienced a feast of up-and-coming talent in beach fashion and design on 8 March. Titled 'Fashionistas on the Beach,' the event was under the umbrella of the Market Day and attracted a significant number of beach-goers who were keen to add inspiring fashion elements to their beach wardrobe.

Yoga enthusiasts, who have been attending yoga sessions at the Etisalat Beach Canteen were also excited to find ethnically designed bags to carry their yoga mats and towels. Some of the fashion accessories fit for the beach included long-layered necklaces, sturdy leather cuffs for men, boho-style clutches and hats.

DFF 2016 runs until 12 March under the theme 'Celebrate Taste' and is organised by the Dubai Festivals and Retail Establishment (DFRE), an agency of the Department of Tourism and Commerce Marketing (DTCM).
